Information

Henderson Police arrested Kaiden V. Lo following an investigation into an animal cruelty complaint.

The investigation began on December 22, 2024, in the 1500 block of Pringle St. The 911 caller reported finding a mutilated cat on their car. The reporter said they had been in a verbal dispute with Lo on December 20th and they believed he had placed the cat on their car.

During the investigation, police developed probable cause that resulted in an arrest warrant being issued for Lo.

Lo turned himself in on January 1st, 2025, and was processed into the Henderson County Detention Center for:

Count I: Torture of a Dog or Cat

Presumption of Innocence Notice: The fact that a person has been arrested or charged with a crime is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty in a court of law.
