Media Release

Officer Payne Bickett has been named the March Officer of the Month.

On February 18th, Officer Bickett was dispatched to the Judicial Center for a theft report. The victim told him her phone had been stolen while she was in the building and that she was able to see the phone's location through a tracking app.

Officer Bickett and the victim spent the next hour getting updated locations as the phone moved from one spot to another. Officer Bickett remained with the victim and went to each updated location with the hope of recovering the phone, which contained important personal information and priceless photos.

The modern-day Holmes and Watson eventually found the phone abandoned in an alleyway. Although the suspect had damaged the screen, the victim was able to retrieve the data and photos.

The victim stopped by HPD headquarters the following day to express her gratitude to Officer Bickett. We would also like to extend our thanks to Officer Bickett for seeing this incident as more than a report run.
