Media Release

Henderson driver arrested after driving while intoxicated with his 1-year-old child in the car.

On March 5th at 8:55pm, Officers were flagged down by a citizen who reported ELIJAH WOOD had just left her at a local restaurant after she told him to pull over because she believed he was intoxicated. Officers were also told there was a baby in the car with Wood while he was driving. Wood was located at a nearby address and detained.

Following a series of field sobriety tests, officers determined Wood was intoxicated. Wood was taken into custody and submitted to a breath test for alcohol intoxication. Wood tested over the legal limit for operating a vehicle.

Wood was lodged in the Henderson County Detention Center on an initial charge of:

Operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol .08 or higher, 1st Degree aggravating circumstance (child in the car)

Presumption of Innocence Notice: The fact that a person has been arrested or charged with a crime is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty in a court of law.
