Media Release

Henderson Police arrested DAWSON RAMIREZ on several charges after he crashed into a gas station sign early Monday morning.

Ramirez was driving in the 1300 block of Old Madisonville Rd around 1:30am when he left the roadway and hit the J's Quick Stop sign. While investigating the crash, officers detected signs of impairment. Officers could smell the odor of burnt marijuana coming from the car and found an open alcoholic beverage container in the car.

Ramirez was given several field sobriety tests, which he could not successfully complete. Based on the FST results and verbal statements made by Ramirez, officers took Ramirez into custody. He was transported to a medical facility for a blood draw prior to be taken to the Henderson County Detention Center. Ramirez was arrested on the following charges:

Operating While Under the Influence 1st Degree
Possession of Marijuana
Possession of Open Alcohol Beverage Container
Failure to Maintain Required Insurance 1st Offense

Presumption of Innocence Notice: The fact that a person has been arrested or charged with a crime is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty in a court of law.
